

Clinical Training Room

Ongoing and specialized clinical training for staff who work with individuals.

- Staff are trained in safe medication administration practices, including understanding prescriptions, proper dosing, documentation, and more.
- To respond effectively to medical emergencies, caregivers are certified in first aid and CPR.
- Training includes basic healthcare skills such as monitoring vital signs, wound care, infection control, and managing chronic conditions commonly found in individuals with developmental disabilities.

