

Music Therapy

Music is the language everyone understands.

- Enhance verbal and non-verbal communication by encouraging self-expression and group activities.
- Live performers soothe, delight, and inspire.
- Individuals can make their own music on a variety of instruments and objects. Music-making and rhythmic movement can improve fine and gross motor skills.

